v.

RODALE INC., a Pennsylvania

Defendant.

Case No. 2:14-cv-12688

Honorable Robert H. Cleland

DECLARATION OF ARI J. SCHARG IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY APPROVAL OF THE PARTIES' CLASS ACTION SETTLEMENT

I, Ari J. Scharg, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, hereby declare as follows:

1. I am an adult over the age of 18 and a resident of the State of Illinois.

I am a partner at the law firm of Edelson PC, which has been retained to represent Plaintiff Rose Coulter-Owens ("Plaintiff") in this matter and I am admitted to practice before this Court. I make this Declaration in support of Plaintiff's Motion for and Memorandum in Support of Preliminary Approval of Class Action Settlement, and am fully competent to do so. I have personal knowledge of all matters set forth herein unless otherwise indicated, and, if called upon to testify, I could and would competently do so.

2. On July 9, 2014, Plaintiff Coulter-Owens filed her Class Action

Complaint. (Dkt. 1.)

3. Following the resolution of Defendant Rodale Corporation's ("Defendant" or "Rodale") motion to dismiss under Rules 12(b)(1) and 12(b)(6), (Dkt. 27), the Parties exchanged initial disclosures under Rule 26(a)(1) and written discovery requests. Plaintiff additionally served subpoenas for depositions and documents on various third parties—Acxiom Corporation and Merkle, Inc.

4. Over the next 8 months, the Parties engaged in substantial class- and merits-related discovery. During that time, (i) Defendant produced and Plaintiff analyzed various documents (including contractual documents, communications, and highly technical materials describing Rodale's data practices); (ii) Plaintiff received and analyzed hundreds of additional documents produced pursuant to her subpoenas, including from Acxiom Corporation; (iii) both parties responded to substantive interrogatory requests, including additional interrogatories propounded by Plaintiff; (iv) Plaintiff deposed a corporate representative of Rodale pursuant to Rule 30(b)(6), a corporate representative of Acxiom Corporation pursuant to Rule 30(b)(6), and prepared for the Rule 30(b)(6) deposition of Merkle, Inc., including by exchanging information with Merkle in the months leading up to the noticed deposition; (v) Defendant deposed Plaintiff (regarding her claims, her ability to serve as a class representative in this matter, and her responses to Defendant's written discovery requests); and (vi) the Parties engaged in several meet and confers regarding such discovery processes.

5. On November 4, 2015, the Parties participated in a private mediation with former Chief Judge of the Northern District of Illinois, the Honorable James F. Holderman (Ret.) at JAMS in Chicago, Illinois.

6. Despite submitting briefs in support of their respective positions, a full day of mediation, and numerous rounds of arm's-length negotiations, the Parties were unable to reach an agreement on the principal terms of the Settlement at the November 4th mediation. As such, the Parties refocused their efforts on the litigation, including, for example, rounding out certain issues relating to discovery and scheduling the third party deposition of Merkle, Inc.

7. In the meantime, the Parties continued to discuss the possibility of settlement, and on December 2, 2015, the parties returned to JAMS for a second mediation. Finally, with the continued assistance of Judge Holderman, they ultimately reached an agreement on the principal terms of the Settlement

8. Edelson PC has extensive experience in litigating class actions of similar size, scope, and complexity to the instant action. My firm regularly engages in major complex litigation on behalf of consumers and has extensive general experience in large and complex consumer class actions like the present case—including class actions brought and certified under the VRPA. (See Firm Resume of Edelson PC, a true and accurate copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A).

We also have extensive experience litigating consumer privacy class actions, and are routinely appointed as class counsel in high-profile privacy class actions in state and federal courts across the country. (See Ex. 2-A); see also Coulter-Owens v. Time, Inc., No. 12-CV-14390, 2015 WL 4527822, at *11 (E.D. Mich. July 27, 2015) (On a motion for adversarial class certification in a VRPA case, holding that “counsel is qualified to serve as class counsel especially given counsel’s prior experience in handling a class action lawsuit dealing with the same claims before this court.”); Halaburda v. Bauer Publishing Co., No. 12-cv-12831 (E.D. Mich.) (securing first ever class settlement under the VRPA).

9. To date, my firm has committed substantial human and financial resources to the prosecution of this case, and will continue to do so throughout its pendency.

10. The Parties agreed to the terms of the Settlement through experienced counsel who possessed all the information necessary to evaluate the case, determine all the contours of the proposed class, and reach a fair and reasonable compromise after negotiating the terms of the Settlement at arm’s-length and with the assistance of a neutral mediator.

11. Plaintiff and proposed Class Counsel recognize that despite our belief in the strength of Plaintiff’s claim and her ability to ultimately secure a $5,000 statutory award under the VRPA, the expense, duration, and complexity of protracted litigation would be substantial and the outcome of trial uncertain.

12. Plaintiff and proposed Class Counsel are also mindful that absent a settlement, the success of Defendant's various defenses in this case could deprive the Plaintiff and the Settlement Class Members of any potential relief whatsoever. Rodale is represented by highly experienced attorneys who have made clear that absent a settlement, they were prepared to continue their vigorous defense of this case, including by moving for summary judgment. Plaintiff and proposed Class Counsel are also aware that Defendant would continue to challenge liability and the constitutionality of the VRPA, as well as assert a number of defenses based on, inter alia, (i) the Act's applicability to magazines and the magazine publishers, (ii) whether the Act prohibits the specific third party disclosures at issue here (i.e., particularly in light of Rodale's argument that third party Acxiom and Merkle are its "agents" and that it does not sell subscriptions "at retail"), and (iii) whether the VRPA is constitutional.

13. Plaintiff and proposed Class Counsel are also aware that Defendant would appeal any judgment ultimately rendered in Plaintiff's favor (which would further delay recovery by the Settlement Class), and attempt to argue for a reduction of damages based on due process concerns.

14. Plaintiff and proposed Class Counsel believe that the monetary and prospective relief provided by the settlement weighs heavily in favor of a finding that the settlement is fair, reasonable, and adequate, and well within the range of approval.

15. Rodale recently produced documents and information confirming that as of the date of this filing, there are approximately 580,000 Michigan residents who purchased a Rodale magazine subscription on or after July 1, 2009.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the above and foregoing is true and accurate.

Executed this 23rd day of December 2015 at Chicago, Illinois.

EDELSON PC FIRM RESUME

EDELSON PC is a plaintiffs' class action and commercial litigation firm with attorneys in Illinois and California.

Our attorneys have been recognized as leaders in these fields by state and federal courts, legislatures, national and international media groups, and our peers. Our reputation has led state and federal courts across the country to appoint us lead counsel in many high-profile cases, including in cutting-edge privacy class actions against comScore, Netflix, Time, Microsoft, and Facebook; Telephone Consumer Protection Act class actions against technology, media, and retail companies such as Google, Twentieth Century Fox, Simon & Schuster, and Steve Madden; data security class actions against LinkedIn and AvMed; banking cases against Citibank, Wells Fargo, and JP Morgan Chase related to reductions in home equity lines of credit; fraudulent marketing cases against software companies such as Symantec and Ascentive; mobile content class actions against all major cellular telephone carriers; and product liability cases, including the Thomas the Tank Engine lead paint class actions and the tainted pet food litigation.

We have testified before the United States Senate on class action issues and have repeatedly been asked to work on federal and state legislation involving cellular telephony, privacy, and other consumer issues. Our attorneys have appeared on dozens of national and international television and radio programs to discuss our cases and class action and consumer protection issues more generally. Our attorneys speak regularly at seminars on consumer protection and class action issues, lecture on class actions at law schools, and serve as testifying experts in cases involving class action and consumer issues.

PLAINTIFFS' CLASS AND MASS ACTION PRACTICE GROUP

EDELSON PC is a leader in plaintiffs' class and mass action litigation, with a specialized focus on consumer technology. Our firm is "known for securing multi-million dollar settlements against tech giants" (Chicago Daily Law Bulletin, September 2013), and has been specifically recognized as "pioneers in the electronic privacy class action field, having litigated some of the largest consumer class actions in the country on this issue." See In re Facebook Privacy Litig., No. C 10-02389 (N.D. Cal. Dec. 10, 2010) (order appointing us interim co-lead of privacy class action); see also In re Netflix Privacy Litig., No. 11-cv-00379 (N.D. Cal. Aug. 12, 2011) (appointing us sole lead counsel due, in part, to our "significant and particularly specialized expertise in electronic privacy litigation and class actions. . . ."). We have also been recognized by courts for our uniquely zealous and efficient approach to litigation, which lead the then-Chief Judge of the United States Court for the Northern District of Illinois to praise our work as "consistent with the highest standards of the profession" and "a model of what the profession should be. . . ." In re Kentucky Fried Chicken Coupon Marketing & Sales Practices Litig., No. 09-cv-7670, MDL 2103 (N.D. Ill. Nov. 30, 2011). Likewise, in appointing our firm interim co-lead in one of the most high profile banking cases in the country, a federal court pointed to our ability to be "vigorous advocates, constructive problem-solvers, and civil with their adversaries." In Re JPMorgan Chase Home Equity Line of Credit Litig., No. 10 C 3647 (N.D. Ill. July 16, 2010). After hard fought litigation, that case settled, resulting in the reinstatement of between $3.2 billion and $4.7 billion in home credit lines. In addition, the firm is uniquely able to try cases, especially those involving sophisticated technology issues. Lead by a deputy chief of the cybercrime unit for the United States Attorney's Office, our trial team has handled both jury and bench trials on issues ranging from general consumer matters to complex cyber crimes (including hacking and cyber intrusions, data breaches, and large-scale identity theft cases) that rested on sophisticated computer forensics.

We have several sub-specialties within our plaintiffs' class action practice:

OUR ATTORNEYS

JAY EDELSON is the founder and Managing Partner of EDELSON PC. He has been recognized as one of the nation's leading class action lawyers, especially in the areas of privacy, technology, and consumer advocacy. His notable cases include ones involving the national banks' suspensions of home equity lines of credit in the aftermath of the housing collapse, which resulted in the restoration of billions of dollars of consumer credit lines. He has developed much of the positive law under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, especially in the area of text message spam, resulting in settlements collectively worth over a hundred millions of dollars and earning him the moniker, "the Spam Slammer." Jay has been recognized as a "pioneer" in the emerging field of electronic privacy, having established key precedent in cases throughout the country and reaching some of the most important settlements in this space. Based primarily on his success in bringing consumer technology class actions, the national press has dubbed Jay and his firm the "most feared" litigators in Silicon Valley and, according to the New York Times, tech's "babyfaced ... boogeyman." The international press has called Jay one of the world's "profilertesten (most prominent)" privacy class action attorneys.

In addition to complex defense-side litigation, which he handles only in select cases, Jay also offers strategic support to start-ups, including several that have become national brands.

Jay is a frequent speaker and writer on class action issues, the practice of law more generally, and training and law firm management — the latter earning him recognition by the ABA as one of "the most creative minds in the legal industry". He is an adjunct professor at Chicago-Kent School of Law, where he has taught seminars on class actions and negotiation. He has written a blog for Thomson Reuters, called Pardon the Disruption, where he focused on ideas necessary to reform and reinvent the legal industry.

RYAN D. ANDREWS is a Partner at EDELSON PC. He presently leads the firm's complex case resolution and appellate practice group, which oversees the firm's class settlements, class notice programs, and briefing on issues of first impression.

Ryan has been appointed class counsel in numerous federal and state class actions nationwide that have resulted in over $100 million dollars in refunds to consumers, including: Satterfield v. Simon & Schuster, No. C 06 2893 CW (N.D. Cal.); Ellison v. Steve Madden, Ltd., No. cv 11-5935 PSG (C.D. Cal.); Robles v. Lucky Brand Dungarees, Inc., No. 10-cv-04846 (N.D.
